

The future is today.

Wills and estate planning for families of adults and children with disabilities

What will happen when you are gone?
Each session will cover wills, wishes for the future, guardianship, assets and trusts.

Do you worry about your child's future without you?

When your loved one has a disability, there are additional things to think about. How can you be sure that the plans and decisions you make today will achieve what you want for their future?

Our presenters Loretta Cooper and Ella Przibilla from Adelta Legal will outline the steps you can take and give you helpful tips for:

- Making or reviewing a Will
- Sharing your wishes about your child's future
- Guardianship and SACAT orders
- Assets and trusts.
